

WITH RE-OPENING HAPPENING, EASTERN METAL SIGNS & SAFETY IS FOCUSING ON SAFETY

WE'VE BEEN IN PRODUCTION SINCE THE CRISIS STARTED AND WE HAVE PRODUCTS READY WHEN YOU ARE

As businesses are re-opening, Eastern Metal Signs and Safety is focusing on the ability to provide the necessary products to our customers.

Being in business for over 70 years means we take pride in the products and services offered and want to make sure fellow businesses are able to do the same while staying safe. Allow us to be the stop for all of your social distancing, re-opening, germ safety, and inside store traffic needs.

As a long-standing company, we are here for all of your safety supply needs, but we can also provide custom products at affordable prices that make business better and friendlier than ever without having to worry about where the products are coming.

Have our team deliver quality products in a timely manner, so you can focus on providing quality services to your customers and clients while re-opening.

As a community, Eastern Metal Signs and Safety is here when you need these and other signs, materials and products.
